New Assignment Reminder...

My main purpose is to live (SUN). (MOON) is my primary support in the project called "life." (ASCENDANT, MERCURY, VENUS AND MARS) create the personality through which I can best express SUN. (JUPITER, SATURN, URANUS, NEPTUNE, and PLUTO) are my cosmic silent partners in this venture. And it is on behalf of (MID-HEAVEN) that I deliver my blessing into form.

This is what we will call OUR SOUL STORY. Knowing this has already changed our lives and will surely dictate the rest of it.

39th Gene Key: Liberation

Siddhi ~ Liberation

Gift ~ Dynamism

Shadow ~ Provocation

There are relatively few themes in the human genetic matrix that GOVERN HUMANITY. But this is one. And it follows the myth of the warrior. We all aspire to attain the highest of frequencies of this Gene Key, and yet the Shadow frequencies of this one is responsible for maintaining a planetary vibration dominated by a single quality—VIOLENCE.

Rooted in your adrenaline system, this dynamic code is all about action. When it strikes people are generally not led by their heads but by the primitive urge to act either wisely or foolishly. This is a dangerous Shadow to cross paths with. It is rooted in the fear of being trapped—fear of losing our individual freedom. We humans carry that fear in our ancestral DNA. The 39th Shadow is like a cobra waiting to strike. When aimed precisely at its target, it seldom misses.

This is how your partner, parent or child knows the precise code, tone and word that will provoke your anger. And many times, it is just the TONE they use, since Emotional Violence is acoustic. Every provocation has a tone. It is all rooted in SOUND! Frequency!

The only way to alter it is also a matter of frequency. As your attitude shifts, so does your frequency. So, the question becomes: "How have you wired your own thinking and feeling to respond to the myriad intonations from the environment?" Until you created an inner transformer to tune out lower frequencies and tune in higher ones, the lower frequencies will hit your DNA and bounce back as reaction rooted in a similar frequency as the one sent to you.

The 39th Shadow has a single goal—to provoke you. It is a genetic law that the moment you react violently to an emotional provocation, you are engaging with the energy of struggle and effort. Thus, all violence can be understood as an acoustic field in which individuals react automatically and personally to speech codes according to pre-conditioned patterns. Consequently, violence is an addiction for most people on our planet.

P 304

What can save us? The raw energy of the 39th Gift—The Gift of Dynamism. Dynamism is best seen as the exuberant and seemingly inexhaustible energy of young children. Play is dynamism exemplified. It is the unbridled expression of life energy and its result: CREATIVITY.

All conditioning can be reversed. This is the work that we are all doing to RAISE OUR FREQUENCY. As you do, your natural dynamism returns, and it returns as CREATIVITY! If you do what you truly love, you unleash your creative dynamism.

The same pressure that was provocative at a low frequency can also be provocative at a higher frequency. You just have to pay attention to what you provoke.

Dynamism can be contagious. When you meet someone expressing their latent genius it draws you in. You have more energy. This is also part of the gift: Action. It doesn't wait, but initiates, pushes, sparks and catalyzes. A person living the 39th Gift unleashes a tidal wave of creative activity wherever they go. They know no fear! This is the true spirit of the warrior.

The Sophia Frequency can allow us to begin to catch ourselves and consciously begin to raise our frequency. As we do, we will begin to be “provoked” by higher frequencies rather than lower ones.

Tonight, we expand our understanding of The Universal Pillars.

This evening, we are specifically looking at Neptune.
I like to think of Neptune as our Warrior's Secret Weapon.
It is the gift we, and our Spirit family, bring to the planet to help shift us out of the lower frequencies and into the higher ones.

Your Invisible Garment

How has your time with your Invisible Garment, so far? Any issues?

URANUS ~ THE BIRTHGROUP SUPPORT

“Neptune is the god of the sea. Therefore, his turf is the collective consciousness of the great cosmic waters. As a planet, Neptune lives at the edge of the solar system. He moves slowly, backs up often, and starts again. It takes months for Neptune to move out of one degree of one sign in the zodiac. During those months, thousands of babies are born on planet Earth. All the babies who are born with Neptune in the same degree of the same sign are called a “birth group.” Members of a birth group support each other in consciousness for all of their lives. It is also important to note that Neptune takes about 360 years to move around the sun. That means that your birth group is bringing a principle to consciousness that has not been delivered in 360 years. A lot has changed since last time Neptune sent this idea forth. On a personal level, Neptune is your emotional connection to your birth group. Venus is your personal emotional body, but Neptune holds the greater picture of who you are (emotionally) in relationship to the whole species. The house in which you place your Neptune is the personal aspect of this planet, and it tells us something about the way you have agreed to be an emotional anchor for the greater birth group with which you have incarnated.”

This is also the gift your group brings to the planet to aid in the raising of the frequency of humanity as a whole.

Neptune in PURITY

Your birth group came onto the planet with the intention of bringing a freshness, newness, cleanness to consciousness. You infused the planetary consciousness with a deep knowledge of the blueprint behind all the forms and belief structures in which we operate. Because of that infusion, the political and social systems of all the major countries in the world have restructured themselves and purified themselves in the last few years!

Neptune in GOODNESS

Your birth group brought deep memory of the basic goodness of all beings and all forms. In almost any situation, you, and anyone in your birth group, can sway the mood and attitude and opinion of people by calling on Goodness. Either through your words or your own attitude, you can remind humanity of the basic goodness in life. By infusing the consciousness with Goodness, you help to augment its presence in the world.

Neptune in DESIRE

Your birth group came to infuse the planet with the consciousness that only when the inner and the outer are the same do we truly understand the power of life force. When we get stuck in separation, polarization, and duality, we ramble—lost—unable to find a true sense of home. Your birth group brought “home” to consciousness of the human species to remind us all that life is a gift; life is a sacred journey. It is not an exile but a walk around the block!

Neptune in LOVE

Your birth group brought the gift of Love to the planet. This infusion was necessary in order for the species to prepare for what was to come in the rest of the century! An awareness of the unifying nature of Love is necessary for us to make a meaningful world. Quantum physicists are presently even saying that love is the glue of the atom, and therefore of the universe. It is out of Love that all things come into being. It is into Love that they eventually disappear. You have a particularly intimate relationship with the power of Love, for it is the gift of your birth group.

Neptune in HUMILITY

Your birth group brought the principle of Humility and infused the species with that longing to know the self. Neptune is the planet of the collective dream, and your birth group planted the seed of the theme for generations to come: the theme of knowing the self authentically and from that knowingness creating a dream of peace and harmony on the planet.

Uranus in RANDOMNESS

Neptune in Randomness tells us that your birth group infused the collective consciousness with divine potential. You came in to remind us that we are capable as a group of dreaming a new dream—writing a new script for the evolution of our planet. Neptune was discovered by astronomers the same year film was invented. They have similar qualities—the sort of dreamy, mystical, magical way they play with our imaginations. When your birth group came in, the world and especially our country (the USA) were in a great chaos. We were falling apart and destroying any systems and social structures that did not work. We were in that part of the kaleidoscope experience when the rocks are all going chunk-a-chunk-a-chunk on their way to a new pattern. Your birth group reminded us of the unlimited potential of the new patterns!

Neptune in RESISTANCE

Your birth group brought the principle of Resistance to the collective consciousness.

One of the most recent birth groups born with Neptune under the principle of Resistance came in 1964. That is very interesting. In late 1963, we were stunned in the US and worldwide by the assassination of President Kennedy. Suddenly, the American myth began to shatter. We began to question and object openly to everything inauthentic—every lie. Your birth group came along and helped turn what could have been chaotic mob-mindedness into a relatively structured, ordered “resistance” to society’s ailing structures. Of course, that resistance had its harshness and deep pain. However, it resulted in a nation-wide soul searching that is still unfolding in the early 21st century.

Neptune in ATTRACTION

Your birth group came in with a particularly acute talent for magnetizing what is needed in certain situations. In a way, you are the social teachers about the principle of Attraction. You show the world, both in a positive and in a negative way, that what you attract to yourself determines the way in which you experience life. There is a level of accountability—"I'll take responsibility for my life, thank you very much"—with your birth group that does not exist in the wider consciousness. Most people are better at being victims to life, while your birth group wants to take life by the horns, so to speak.

Neptune in LOVE

Your birth group brought the gift of Love to the planet. This infusion was necessary in order for the species to prepare for what was to come in the rest of the century! An awareness of the unifying nature of Love is necessary for us to make a meaningful world. Quantum physicists are presently even saying that love is the glue of the atom, and therefore of the universe. It is out of Love that all things come into being. It is into Love that they eventually disappear. You have a particularly intimate relationship with the power of Love, for it is the gift of your birth group.

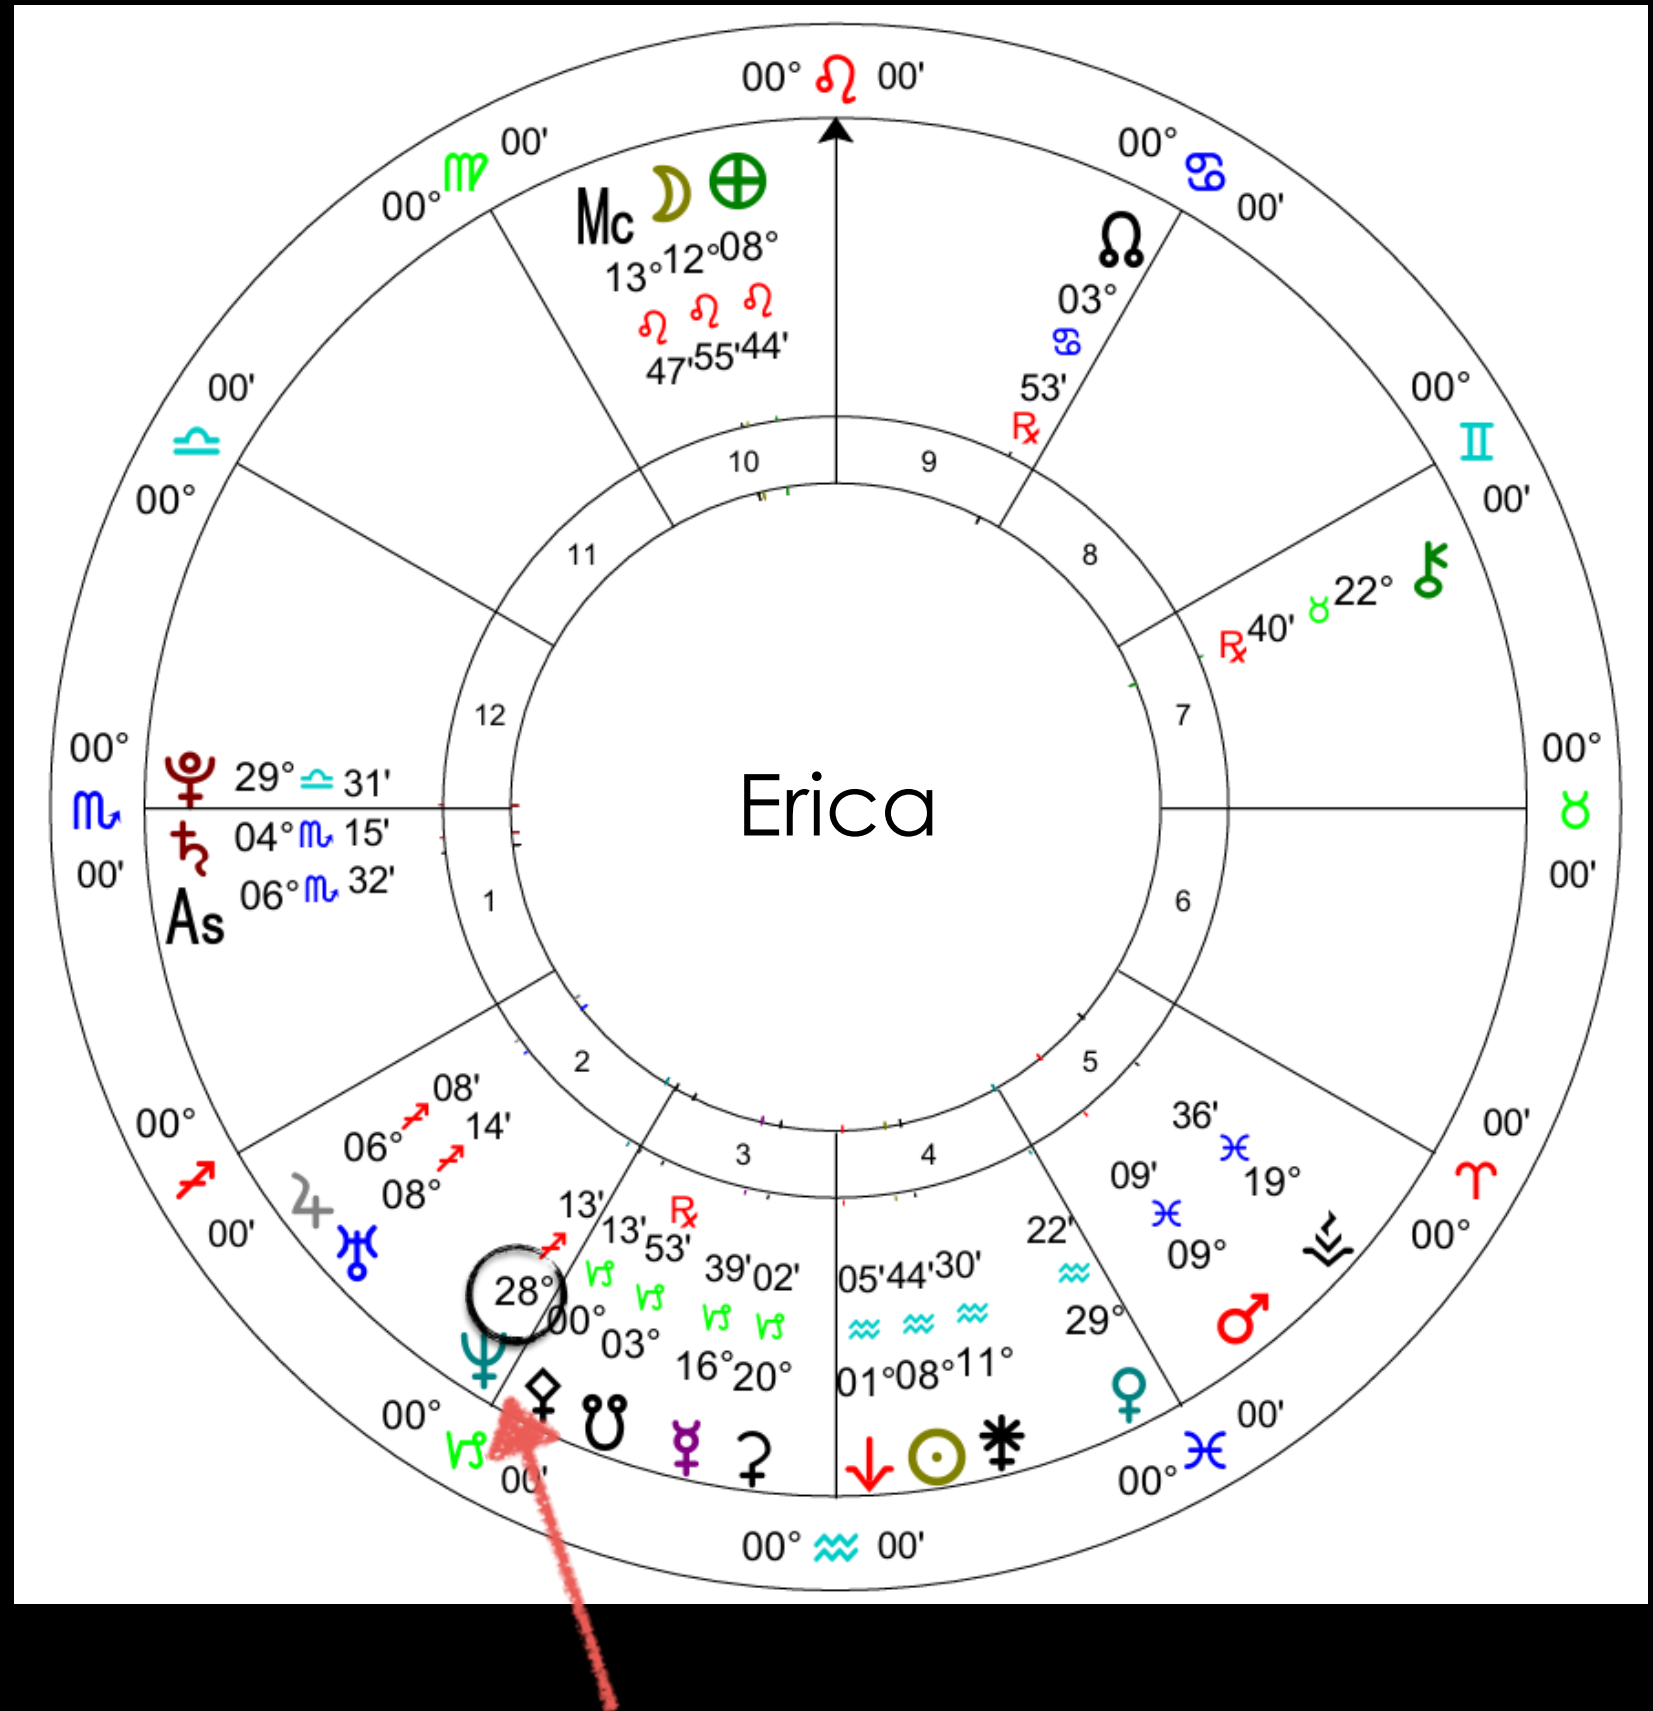

Neptune in INTELLIGENCE

Your birth group brought in a shot of Intelligence in order to help the species integrate all the new information of the decade before your birth. Massive changes in consciousness had occurred just prior to your birth, and massive changes in society were preparing themselves to come forth. You brought in this reminder that we must pull that information together in new and creative ways in order to use it for beneficial reasons. Metaphorically, your birth group is functioning as the central nervous system of the species.

Neptune in LOVE

Your birth group brought the gift of Love to the planet. This infusion was necessary in order for the species to prepare for what was to come in the rest of the century! An awareness of the unifying nature of Love is necessary for us to make a meaningful world. Quantum physicists are presently even saying that love is the glue of the atom, and therefore of the universe. It is out of Love that all things come into being. We were in that part of the kaleidoscope experience when the rocks are all going chunk-a-chunk-a-chunk on their way to a new pattern. Your birth group reminded us of the unlimited potential of the new patterns!

Neptune in FLOWERING

Your birth group brought an evolutionary spurt to the human collective. Physics shows us that evolution does not occur like the steady growth of a tree. Evolutionary change comes in jolts—starts and stops—spurts. Your birth group infused the collective consciousness with a reminder that we must evolve, we must change, we must be willing to move to new levels of life experience in order to fulfill our destiny.

Neptune in LOVE

Your birth group brought the gift of Love to the planet. This infusion was necessary in order for the species to prepare for what was to come in the rest of the century! An awareness of the unifying nature of Love is necessary for us to make a meaningful world. Neptune in CREATIVITY

Your birth group came into life with the imperative to infuse the world with newness. Thousands and thousands of babies were born with the Neptune at 12 degrees, in the few months around your birthday, and each of those people carries the same kind of urge that you do: to break out of the mold and find absolutely new ways to live and express life. It is your "job" to inspire and encourage everyone constantly around you to use his or her own creative drive!

Drop into your Soul...

Connect with the Divine Sophia...

What does she have to share with you about your soul weave?

What is her take on what you are bringing to the planet and why?

Dynamism feeds upon itself. It serves many people which in turn raises its vibration. The more people you serve, the more rarefied your frequency becomes until one day you reach the crux point. When it arrives, there is no mistaking it. You will know you are there because you will have to put your entire being on the line. All your plans, creativity, work, intent and service must be surrendered into a single vanishing point. The true warrior is the one who is willing to die for the highest cause. But this always comes with a guarantee that you will transcend. There is always a rebirth after the warrior has given his life for a higher cause. This rebirth is Liberation: annihilation of fear through the death of the small self.
