What's moving in you since last week?

A Little Review...as we mentioned last week...

Your Sun is your primary gift to life, what you came here to live. Your Moon is the most fundamental support you have for living your Sun/Purpose. The Personal Pillars are the parts of your personality that help you express your purpose. The Universal Pillars, which we are covering now, are the cosmic aspects of your life that hold you together, no matter what the world is throwing at you. The Mid-Heaven, as we will see is your connection to your soul—your direct path to remembering who you are on a level beyond human—your inspiration for taking a human incarnation at this time.

You will want to begin this process now...

My main purpose is to live
(SUN). (MOON) is my primary support in the project called “life.” (ASCENDANT, MERCURY, VENUS AND MARS) create the personality through which I can best express SUN.
(JUPITER, SATURN, URANUS, NEPTUNE, and PLUTO) are my cosmic silent partners in this venture. And it is on behalf of (MID-HEAVEN) that I deliver my blessing into form.

This is what we will call
OUR SOUL STORY. Knowing this has already changed our lives and will surely dictate the rest
of it.

My Invisible Garment

What have you learned or discovered from doing this process?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no text or other markings on the paper.

55th Gene Key: Freedom

You have a unique genetic sequence that dictates the unfolding of your true nature. This higher purpose is hidden in your DNA. We are now discovering that BIG SELF – which has been hidden inside of us for eons. And as we have discussed, because our divinity seemed far way, we have concerned ourselves with external life management.

And as we are also aware, this is about to change – is in fact, changing, in what in evolutionary timing, is a relatively SHORT period of time. The world we are living in now is changing into what most of us would consider pure fantasy.

So, you could say we are alive at a deeply romantic moment—the moment in which the prince kisses Sleeping Beauty and she fully awakens. And as she awakens the world is transformed!

There is a place inside your DNA whose sole purpose is to trigger this awakening...There are dormant memory codes inside you that are specifically designed to be activated and awakened by this transmission. It is located deep in the dorsal ganglia of the solar plexus and is about emotions!

So, as we continue our discussion, notice what emotions show up. All of the spectrum, even resistance should be honored and respected.

The gift AND the Siddhi of this Gene Key are both FREEDOM, that elusive thing all humans long for. It's Shadow – THE VICTIM.

When we talk about victimhood, on an energetic level, we truly do “reap what we sow,” but it may take longer for this to become apparent in the material dimension. Thus, transcendence here depends upon one factor—your attitude. It is not what happens to you, it's how you handle it.

In this realm, you either behave as though you are a victim of circumstance, or you take full responsibility for your situation.

P 425-427

At the low frequency of this Gene Key, humans look outside themselves when they experience an emotional high or low. At the high end, we believe that true joy is an effect rather than a cause. So we spend our lives chasing whatever we think will bring us joy. And at the low end we play the blame game.

Either way, the tendency to look outside of ourselves for the cause of our moods is an addiction. It traps us in longing and keeps us searching. If you create an unattainable reality, then you spend your life longing for that reality without ever experiencing it.

True enlightenment is not what we really want at all. It isn't exciting in the least, but utterly ordinary. In spite of this, most spirituality is built upon the pursuit of the extra-ordinary. But high frequency doesn't necessarily lead you to spiritual experiences. And with our new drug: the pursuit of truth we can actually become trapped in dogmas or teachings.

How do we escape? UNDERSTANDING!

The frequency that pulls you out of the shadow and into the Gift is UNDERSTANDING that you have become the unwitting victim of your own unconscious belief patterns.

We do this by diving deeply into our emotional core. The sheer voltage of our emotions, especially at their extremes, far outweighs the process of our mind. Our emotions have much more power over us. The raw energy of our emotions becomes the vehicle for unfurling your future awareness, and once that awareness is born, your life exists forever on a higher plane. (Can we say trauma clearing?)

How do we know when we are stuck here?

Complaining and blaming – both internally and externally. Ponder for a moment how many times we complain internally.

P427-437

The Sophia
Frequency can allow us to begin to observe our emotions and gain understanding
from them.
When we begin to catch ourselves and consciously
take responsibility for our lives, the shift occurs.

Tonight, we expand our understanding of

The Universal Pillars.

This evening, we are specifically looking at Uranus. Uranus can help us find the Garden of Eden right in front of us. He gives us of those wonderful, maybe seemingly mundane experiences that remind us of why we are here and how glorious the Garden truly is.

Your Invisible Garment

How has your time with
your Invisible Garment,
so far? Any issues?

URANUS ~ SUPPORT FOR YOUR AUTHENTIC SELF

“Uranus is an electrical jolt-like energy that reminds us from time to time of our authentic self. Through Uranus’s shocking reminders, we wake up and remember why we are here.

Uranus is often experienced as if it were an interruption in the normal programming of your daily life to bring a news update. It is live and in the moment.

The Uranus experience is paradoxical. It is simultaneously reminds you (personally) of who you are on the most essential levels, and it takes you out of your ego and puts your life in a much bigger arena. Brian Swimme, in The universe Story, talks about a concept that he calls the idea “worth risking everything for.” It is this idea that makes the horse gallop wildly, makes the birds soar and dive daringly, and makes people defy death to save another person from disaster. Uranus is the planet that holds deep memory of Who you Are on that level—it holds the idea for which you will risk everything. It brings you up out of your littleness and shows you the grand design of your unique blueprint.

Authenticity means that your actions, beliefs, and words are all perfectly consistent. We are rarely authentic. Very, very few people live authentically. But all of us, from time to time are struck, like a lightning bolt, with an authentic moment, and with those moments (Uranian moments) come deep memory of who we truly are.

Uranus in GOODNESS

You are sometimes temporarily stunned by the goodness of all things and all beings. When something happens—whether it is an encounter in the wild with an animal being or just a simple act of kindness that you witness—you experience a lightning bolt of clarity. In that moment, you remember Who You Are, and you remember why you are here. You may not have more than one or two of these experiences in a year, but when they come, they feed you for a long time. Your faith in life is restored.

Uranus in RESISTANCE

With Uranus in Resistance, we know that when you have literally transformed the energy flow—either in your own body, or in your community—you have that electrical charge of authenticity. For example, if you see a community or group operating with a lie—weaving it into their reality, you will most likely be the one to name it. Suddenly, the energy of that group will be transformed (sometimes shattered, sometimes strengthened), but the personal impact on you is profound. You glimpse who you are on a deep level, and your commitment to living the authentic life is renewed.

Suddenly, the energy of that group will be transformed (sometimes shattered, sometimes strengthened), but the personal impact on you is profound. You glimpse who you are on a deep level, and your commitment to living the authentic life is renewed.

Uranus in ATTRACTION

You have the sense of knowing yourself authentically when you have magnetized something that you need. It may be a job, a relationship, a place to live—but it may also be a parking spot, a lucky penny, a book that falls off the shelf exactly when you need it. The point is that your awareness of the connectedness of all things and all beings will bring what you need into your path—and when that happens, you have a lightning flash of recognition that you participate with the Universe in a very profound yet subtle ways. That reminds you of Who You Are.

Uranus in PLACEMENT

Your experiences of authentic self-knowing come when you are rooted. You have this sense of being “in the right place at the right time” and suddenly you remember who you are and why you incarnated. It is a magical experience, because it is connected to the Earth and to the natural laws of Earth. It most likely happens in nature—by a stream, in a forest, in a cave, on a walk by the ocean. Your connection to the micro universes of the planet is profound.

Uranus in GOODNESS

You are sometimes temporarily stunned by the goodness of all things and all beings. When something happens—whether it is an encounter in the wild with an animal being or just a simple act of kindness that you witness—you experience a lightning bolt of clarity. In that moment, you remember Who You Are, and you remember why you are here. You may not have more than one or two of these experiences in a year, but when they come, they feed you for a long time. Your faith in life is restored.

Uranus in DESIRE

Uranus in Desire tells us that when you have those “aha” moments—when you truly remember your contract, your reason for being, your soul connection, you know that you are at home. You remember that you already possess everything, and that acquisition and ownership are not necessary. These moments, which are probably visions, because your eyes perceive the light in some truthful way, remind you of your divine nature. You remember that you represent a highly subtle soul, and that your imperative in life is to create a form through which that soul can express. These are very sacred moments for you personally.

Uranus in GRATITUDE

You have your most authentic self-knowing moments when something happens that brings you to your knees in Gratitude. As you walk through the busy-ness of life, from time to time, you are hit with a bolt of spiritual lightning. You realize just what a gift life is, just how fortunate you are and just how amazing it is to be a part of the unfolding process on this Earth. Those are the moments in which you remember exactly Who You Are.

Uranus in INTELLIGENCE

When you learn something new and when that something is the result of juxtaposing data in a new way, you have an epiphany of self-knowing that is simply marvelous. It is important for you to never stop learning. You will always be pulled to study new ideas and research new topics, because that learning sparks the Intelligence that is such an essential part of your nature.

Uranus in MEMORY

Your experiences of knowing exactly who you are and having authentic understanding of yourself most often come when you are in nature—or at least when you are working with the mineral devas in some way. You have a close kinship with the earth angels, and when they speak to you in whatever way they communicate with you, your most ancient Memory is stirred. Who you are why you are here, where you are going all become clear—for that moment anyway. There is a certain lightness to your being, because you are related to these very light beings!

Uranus in GENEROSITY

With Uranus in Generosity, we know that you have those “aha” moments when something happens that demonstrates the principle of giving and receiving to you. If you make a sacrifice of some sort and then you receive a new job or a check in the mail, it all of a sudden makes sense to you and you remember yourself fully and honestly. These moments erase doubt and fear around whether you will be “okay” in this material world and allow you to remember your holiness.

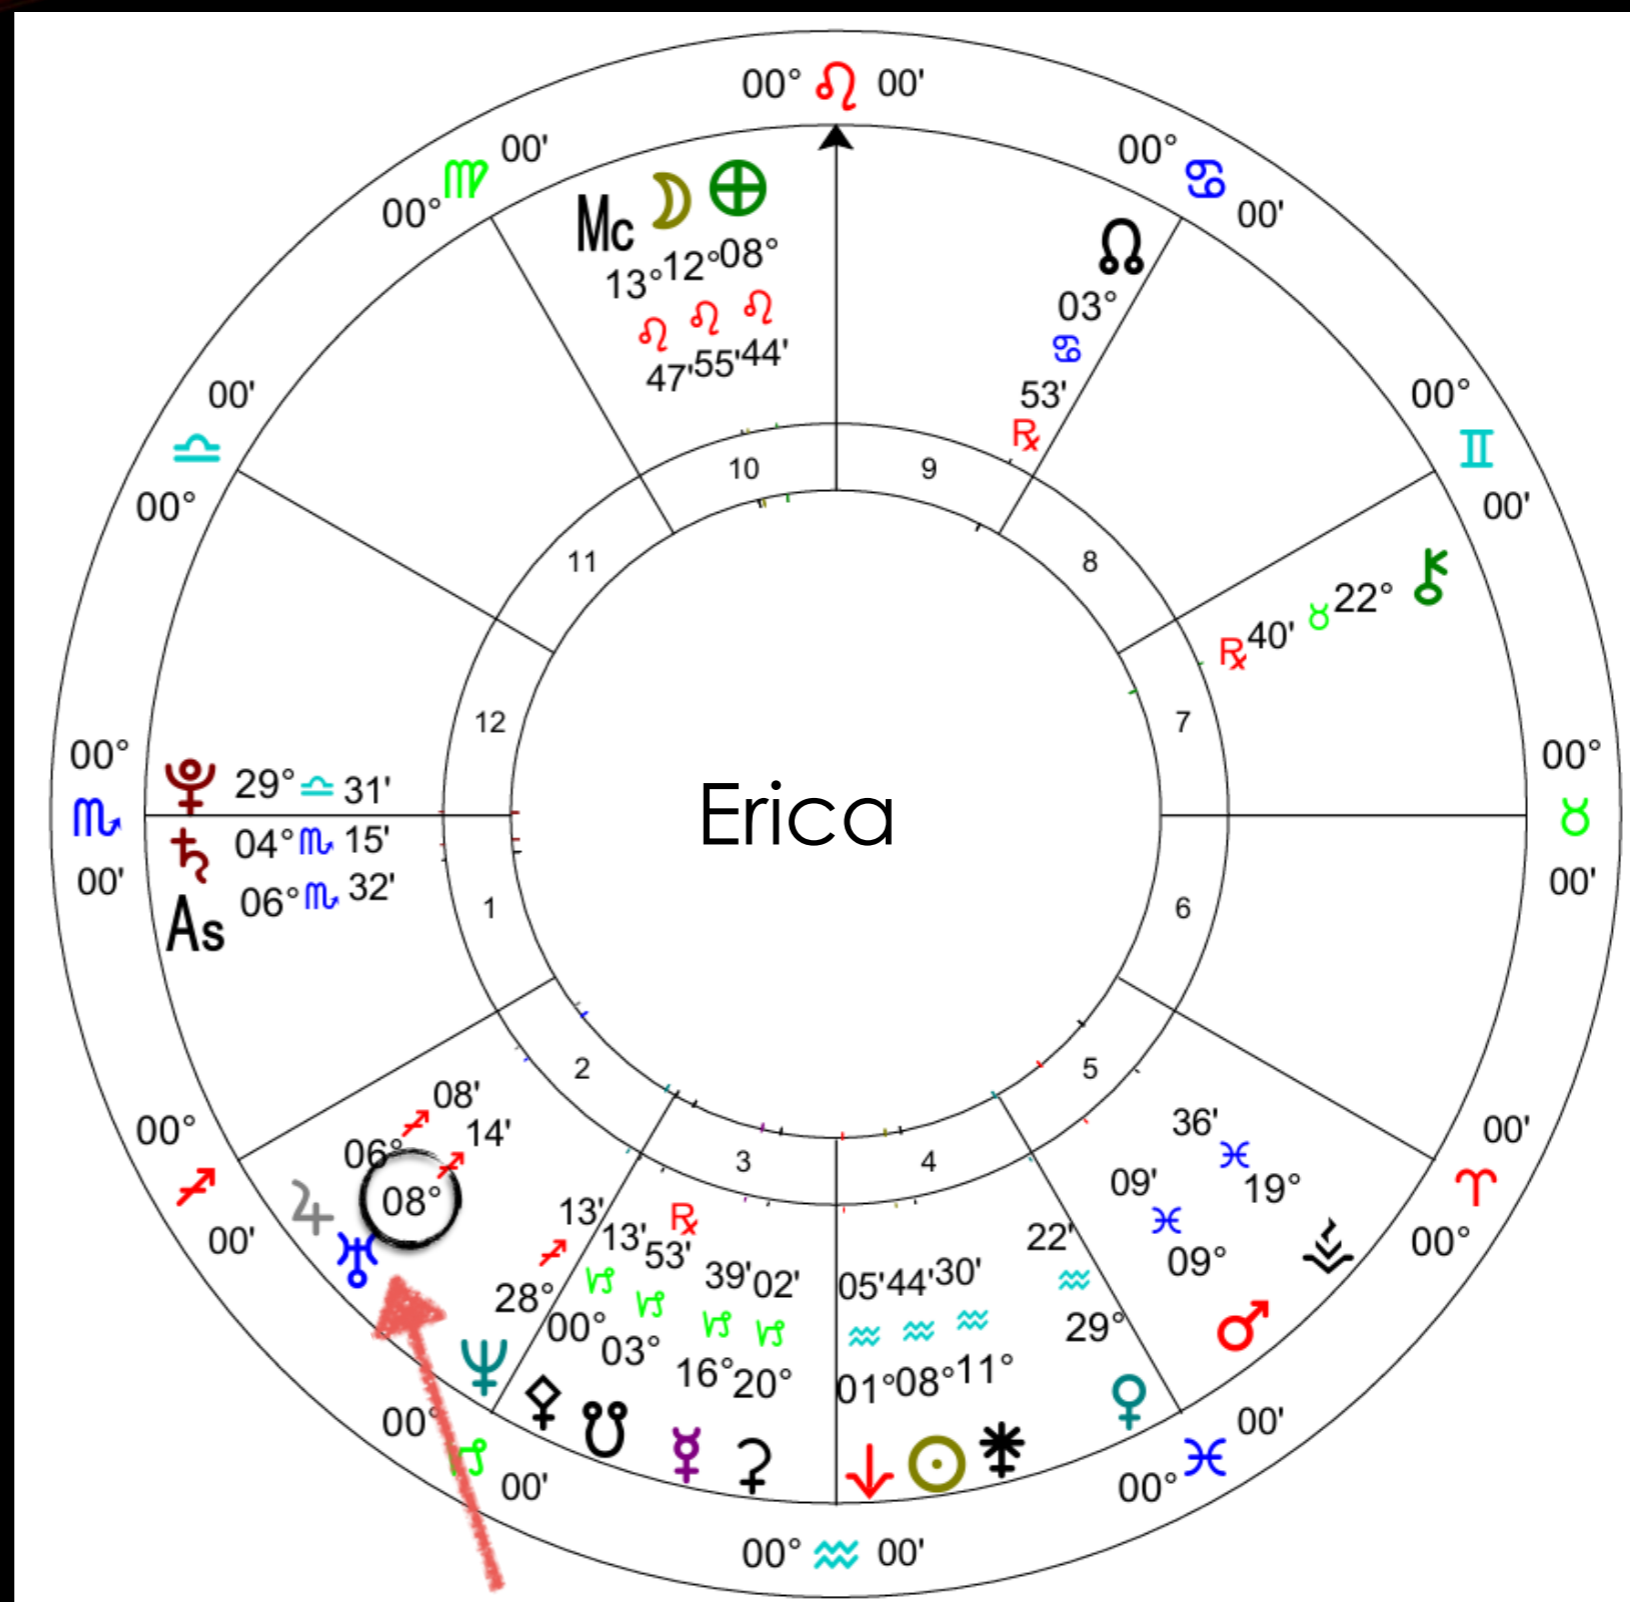

Uranus in BEAUTY

Your moments of most authentic self-knowing come in nature. Most specifically, the mineral kingdom speaks to you. You understand a gemstone as form that has purified itself so that the light can be seen through it. In many ways, that is who you are. You are a diamond. You are a being who allows the light to shine through you; therefore, you allow people who really see you to experience Beauty in themselves. You intuitively know when those moments have occurred, and they give you a sense of self that is profound.

Uranus in GOODNESS

You are sometimes temporarily stunned by the goodness of all things and all beings. When something happens—whether it is an encounter in the wild with an animal being or just a simple act of kindness that you witness—you experience a lightning bolt of clarity. In that moment, you remember Who You Are, and you remember why you are here. You may not have more than one or two of these experiences in a year, but when they come, they feed you for a long time. Your faith in life is restored.

Uranus in GRATITUDE

You have your most authentic self-knowing moments when something happens that brings you to your knees in Gratitude. As you walk through the busy-ness of life, from time to time, you are hit with a bolt of spiritual lightning. You realize just what a gift life is, just how fortunate you are and just how amazing it is to be a part of the unfolding process on this Earth. Those are the moments in which you remember exactly Who You Are.

Uranus in INNOCENCE

You love to learn and when you learn something new like an innocent child you are in wonderment. You have the most authentic sense of yourself when you discover something new—or when you rediscover something as if for the first time. The capacity to mature and maintain an ability to be in awe, an ability to be innocent, is a fundamental sign that you are a mystic!

Uranus in LOVE

You have moments of authentic self-knowing, ironically when you completely forget about yourself and enter the collective space of unconditional love. In those moments, you may literally see the lines of energy that connect all beings and all material objects with the spiritual and unseen forces in which they are sourced. You may see energy bodies or energy fields spontaneously, and in that moment, you have a memory of the truth behind all form. When you have the Uranian experience, it causes your priorities to shift slightly: Your life becomes smooth, your decisions include a wide range of people and dynamics, and your heart feels very open and inclusive.

Uranus in DREAMING

With Uranus in Dreaming, we know that you have the most authentic experiences of yourself when you have released the personal mind and the personal will into an expansive space outside the typical band of human consciousness. This kind of dreaming does not necessarily require you being asleep. This relationship with the principle of Dreaming simply indicates that you have the ability to transcend collective consciousness or at least to loosen the boundaries that consensus reality puts on you. And when you do that, you go to a mind space that reminds you of Who You Are and why you came into being at this time.

Uranus in GENEROSITY

With Uranus in Generosity, we know that you have those “aha” moments when something happens that demonstrates the principle of giving and receiving to you. If you make a sacrifice of some sort and then you receive a new job or a check in the mail, it all of a sudden makes sense to you and you remember yourself fully and honestly. These moments erase doubt and fear around whether you will be “okay” in this material world and allow you to remember your holiness.

Drop into your Soul...

Connect with the Divine Sophia...

What does she have to share with you about your soul weave?

What is her take on what you are bringing to the planet and why?

"... Everyone has within their being a barometer of Truth. Freedom comes at a price, and that price is transparency. You must own every negative feeling and tendency within you and take full responsibility for it. You must locate every hidden vestige of fear within your being and embrace it without fear. Once you are transparent with yourself and others, the seed of the future awareness can take root in you." Then we will truly know The Garden we have been living in all the time.
